

EMERGING MARKETS EQUITY STRATEGY

as at 31 March 2021

We have a highly selective, concentrated approach to investing in companies that can deliver sustainable wealth creation over the long term, because we believe that it is companies that create wealth, not equity markets.

INVESTMENT APPROACH

Company focus

Unconstrained, rigorous in-house company research is based on our consistently applied philosophy and process. We only select those businesses which meet our stringent investment criteria.

Team approach

We invest as a team. Our long-tenured, experienced investment team challenges and debates all proposals.

Long-term investment horizon

Our buy-and-hold approach is focused on sustainable growth. We invest for the long term in order to exploit the power of compound growth.

ESG

Analysis of environmental, social and governance factors is fully integrated into our investment process. We believe that good ESG practices and successful businesses typically go hand-in-hand.

Source: Walter Scott (Strategy), MSCI (Index). Gross performance returns do not reflect the deduction of investment advisory fees which if applied would reduce returns but they do reflect the reinvestment of dividends and/or other earnings. Net performance returns show the deduction of a representative advisory fee at 0.75% per annum and reflect the reinvestment of dividends and/or other earnings. Further details of Investment advisor fees are described in Part 2 of our Form ADV and are available upon request.

STRATEGY OVERVIEW

The Emerging Markets Equity strategy aims to provide investors with a favourable real rate of return over the long term by investing in a portfolio of leading companies listed primarily in emerging markets. The strategy may also invest in companies which have the majority of their business or assets located in emerging markets but which are listed elsewhere. Stocks are selected through fundamental, in-house company analysis.

The portfolio will typically consist of 40-60 world-class companies we consider capable of generating superior real returns over the long-term. These will be companies which we believe demonstrate high levels of sustainable growth and profitability, alongside strong balance sheets.

Our unconstrained approach typically leads to portfolios that bear little or no resemblance to any stock market index.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

To receive a list of composite descriptions of Walter Scott and/or GIPS® reports, please email clientservice@walterscott.com or contact the Client Management team using the telephone number or address shown at the end of this document.

COMPOSITE DESCRIPTION

This composite includes all emerging markets portfolios. Portfolios within the composite typically hold 40 to 60 stocks. Benchmark change: On 1st January 2018, the benchmark was changed from MSCI Emerging Markets (gdr) to MSCI Emerging Markets (ndr). This change has been applied to the composite effective 1st January 2001. The revision has been made as the ndr (net dividends re-invested) index applies withholding tax rates that are more similar to the constituents of the composite than the tax rates applied to the gdr (gross dividends re-invested) index. Prior to 1st January 2001, only the gdr index was in existence.

PORTFOLIO CHARACTERISTICS DEFINITIONS

BENCHMARK DEFINITION

MSCI Emerging Markets: an equity benchmark that represents large and mid-cap equity performance across emerging markets countries. It is not directly exposed to developed markets. Further information can be found at www.msci.com

KEY INVESTMENT RISKS

Equities are subject to market, market sector, market liquidity, issuer, and investment style risks, to varying degrees. Small and mid-sized company stocks tend to be more volatile and less liquid than larger company stocks as these companies are less established and have more volatile earnings histories. Investing in foreign denominated and/or domiciled securities involves special risks, including changes in currency exchange rates, political, economic, and social instability, limited company information, differing auditing and legal standards, and less market liquidity. These risks generally are greater with emerging market countries.

Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate, so that when an investment is sold, the amount returned may be less than that originally invested.
